SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON BY REV. DR. LINSKOTT FOR THE INTERNATIONAL PRESS BIBLE QUESTION CLUB.

The object of the International Press Bible Question Club is to promote, by questions, through the press, thought and investigation on the teaching of Scripture in connection with the International Sunday School Lessons.

(Copyright 1910 by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.)

OCTOBER 15, 1911.

Subject: "The Return from the Captivity." Ezra 1:1-11, 11:64-70.

Golden Text: "He retaineth not his anger forever, because he delighteth in mercy." Micah vii:18.

1. Verses 1-2—Who was King Cyrus, and what were his character and achievements?

2. Where were the Jews, as a people, at the opening of this lesson, and what were the circumstances which took them there?

3. How do you account for it that Cyrus, immediately when he began to reign over Babylon, decided to release the Jewish captives and to rebuild the temple at Jerusalem?

4. What reason can you assign for a king, not a Jew, having such a direct message from God?

5. If the religious history of every nation from the beginning of time could be fully known, should we have in essence a repetition of Bible history?

6. Verses 3-4—What class of people do we depend on chiefly to build churches and support missionaries?

7. What motive does Cyrus appeal to for building the temple at Jerusalem?

8. What good is accomplished by the vast sums of money spent in building and supporting churches?

9. If all people are obligated to give money to support the cause of religion, what is the least they should give?

10. Verses 5-6—Are ministers today under obligations to take the lead by precept and example in religious enterprises, without waiting for any special spiritual leading?

11. When persons willingly help in God's cause, are they without exception, "them whose spirit God had raised"?

12. When we undertake giving or doing for the cause of God, why is it safe to conclude that God specially appointed us thereto?

13. Verses 7-11—What, in brief, were the circumstances which brought the gold and silver vessels to Babylon from the first temple at Jerusalem?

14. When a man gives lavishly of precious treasure to the cause of God is that always, or generally, a proof of his love for God?

15. Chapter 2, verses 64-70—What number of people returned to Jerusalem, and what was the number originally carried away to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar? (See 2 Kings xxiv:14.)

16. What were the religious and financial conditions of the people when they were originally deported, and when they returned?

17. What general effect had their captivity upon them?

18. What ministers more to the character of the average man, prosperity or adversity? (This is one of the questions that may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

UNIVERSITY FOR MOUNTAINEER Institution May Be Established Through an Atlanta Woman.

(Atlanta Constitution.)

Plans are being made for the establishment of a university for mountain boys and girls in Georgia. Mrs. Ida Richards-Compton, the Atlanta woman, who is now secretary to Dr. R. S. McArthur, the noted minister who is soon to circle the globe, will build the university between Canton and Dawsonville, on the old Richards plantation. Northern friends have promised to duplicate any amount of money raised in the South, and she expects to meet an enthusiastic Southern support in the movement.

Definite arrangements for the establishment of the university will be made by Mrs. Compton on her return from Europe in May. While on the world tour with Dr. McArthur she will study the schools and universities of the old world with the view of learning thoroughly their educational methods, and on her return she will make it her work to apply the knowledge learned to the improvement and uplifting of educational facilities in the mountains.

The institution which she will establish will be named "The Golden Age University," because, as she says, she believes the new golden age of the world is being ushered in. The standard of the institution will be of university rank, and will furnish needed opportunities for further education to the boys and girls who complete the courses in lower graded schools.

During her trip around the world she will be definitely forming her plans, she says, and on her return will know just exactly what is to be done. With the large and generous support of Northern friends already promised, and in view of the ever-increasing interest in education for the people among the mountains, she feels it will not be difficult to obtain all funds needed.

SCHELEY SLEEPS IN ARLINGTON.

American Naval Hero Buried With Full Military Honors.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Surrounded with all the pomp of military honors, the body of Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, who died suddenly Monday in New York, was buried this afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery, on the Virginia Heights, overlooking the city of Washington.

A thousand men from the rank and file of the nation's naval and land forces formed the imposing escort to the crepe-decked caisson, on which rested the body of the hero of Santiago Bay. In the procession were over seven hundred cadets from the Naval Academy at Annapolis; marines from Washington and Philadelphia, seamen and gunners from the battleships of the navy, veterans of the Spanish war and cavalry and artillery detachments from the posts and stations near Washington.

Distinguished men from every branch of the public service joined in the tributes. Rear Admiral Badger, commanding the second division of the Atlantic fleet, led the long procession that marched from historic St. John's church across the Lafayette Square, from the White House to the gates of Arlington, where an official salute and "taps" were sounded over the grave of the dead hero.

The public funeral followed a short Masonic service held at the residence, on I street. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Roland Cotton Smith, rector of St. John's, assisted by Chaplain Bayard, of the navy.

From the church the casket was transferred to the caisson platform, the last carriage of the soldier or sailor accorded the honors of military burial. The blue and white of the Union Jack covered the coffin. Upon it rested the sword and hat of the dead naval officer, and behind it marched a gunner, bearing the draped flag of the rear admiral, a blue field with two white stars.

Six seamen gunners from Norfolk bore the body of Admiral Schley from the church and the house, and marched at its side on the long journey to Arlington.

The pall bearers included eight intimate friends of the dead fighter: Rear Admirals Nicholson, Cromwell, Gheen, Barker, McLean and Remey; Lieut. Gen. Nelson A. Miles and Justice Alex. B. Hagner, of Washington. Secretary of the Navy Meyer, Admiral George Dewey and members of the Supreme Court, the diplomatic corps, the executive branches of the government and both branches of Congress thronged the church, with the scores of intimate friends of the Schley family.

It was President Taft's personal request that Spanish war veterans in the government service should be permitted to attend the funeral, and a company of them marched to Arlington.

Army Strength 77,523 Men.

Washington, Oct. 7.—One of the most important lessons learned during the recent Texas manoeuvres was the necessity of keeping all troop, battery and company organizations at full war strength. An order just issued fixes the strength of the army at 77,523. This includes large detachments of scouts, prison guards, signal corps men and others in non-line duty, so that the normal strength of the actual fighting force is reduced to 66,698, including all troops serving outside the United States.

Stubborn Case

"I was under the treatment of two doctors," writes Mrs. R. L. Phillips, of Indian Valley, Va., "and they pronounced my case a very stubborn one, of womanly weakness. I was not able to sit up, when I commenced to take Cardui.

I used it about one week, before I saw much change. Now, the severe pain, that had been in my side for years, has gone; and I don't suffer at all. I am feeling better than in a long time, and cannot speak too highly of Cardui."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

If you are one of those ailing women who suffer from any of the troubles so common to women.

A Warning to Young People.

(Warren Cooper—By Request.)
Death is a small and sudden call—
A certain judgment for us all;
Death takes the young as well as old,
Takes them in his arms so cold.

I sighted you the other day,
All dressed in blue, he looked so gay,
Who trifled all his time away,
At last dropped into eternity.

He cried aloud, "I see my state,
But to repent it seems too late,
For I have sinned so long and bold
There is no mercy for my soul."

Off-times to meeting he did go,
His beauty and fine clothes to show;
At last took sick; on his death bed
Eternity he began to dread.

His tender sister, standing by,
Saying, Brother, brother, you must die;
Your days are gone, your joys are past,
Now to your grave you go at last.

His dear old parents, standing round,
Their tears all flowing to the ground;
With aching hearts and trembling minds,
To see their son in hell confined.

Just one more breath he had to breathe,
And in that breath he gave relief,
Saying, "Parents, parents, pray for me—
For I am bound for eternity."

Young people, all, in your blooming days,
Hear what the Lord and Saviour says—
"Repent, while you have the time,
Before you are in hell confined."

No Fall Term for Anderson.

Anderson, Oct. 5.—Because of inability to get a special judge to preside over the regular term of Common Pleas Court, in the absence of Judge Klugh, who is ill, Chief Justice Jones has ordered that the term be abolished. Court is supposed to convene here on Monday to last three weeks. Many cases of importance are on the docket ready for trial.
